

Around 1912, Mary and James Stanley purchased the Indian Rocks Beach Hotel. The hotel was passed down to Mary's daughter Helen Klahre Webb and her second husband Worth Web and eventually sold in the mid 1950's. It continued to operate as a hotel until it burnt down in the late 50's. Below are the Mary Stanley, 2 friends, James Stanley and their grandchildren Dorothy and Bob Klahre in front of the hotel. Indian Rocks Beach Hotel was located about a half mile north of Our Family House around 24 & 26 Gulf Blvd where the Happy Fiddler Condos are now. They later expanded into an adjacent house called the Annex

Left: Helen Klahre Webb in front of the hotel's pavilion.

